The Junior League of Boca Raton, Inc. to hold Sixth Annual Chocolate Decadence:

“Sweethearts” Named

Boca Raton, FL – On February 1, 2007 from 6-9:30 pm, The Junior League of Boca Raton, Inc. (JLBR) in partnership with The Shops of Boca Center will host the Sixth Annual Chocolate Decadence event-- “The Sweetest Party in Town”. Chocolate Decadence 2007 will be a mix between Rio’s Carnevale with New Orleans’ Mardi Gras wrapped up in jazzy Boca style. The spectacular evening will feature samples of fine cuisine from renowned South Florida restaurants, chocolatiers, caterers and more. A special part of the evening is the naming of five community “Sweethearts” whose contributions to South Florida have made a longstanding impact.

This year the community “Sweethearts” being honored include: Peggy Henry, Tim Snow of the George Snow Scholarship Fund, Craig Swill of the Boca Raton News,

Troy McClellan President of the Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce and George Petrocelli of the Boca Raton Resort & Club. These five outstanding individuals will be recognized for their unique contributions to the local community and area non-profit organizations.

Great food, a raffle, and live music will create a deliciously decadent evening for the chocolate lover in everyone. Entertainment will include a Carnevale street parade, amazing New Orleans Style jazz, painted dancers, and food competitions. The fabulous VIP tent will feature fantastic themed décor, posh seating, and exclusive restaurants such as Morton's and Cucina d'Angelo as well as wine and chocolate concoctions. Chocolate Decadence draws approximately 1,500 people from South Palm Beach County to taste and enjoy not only all things chocolate, but all things indulgent, including food, wine, jewelry and shopping.

Proceeds from Chocolate Decadence will enable the Junior League of Boca Raton to continue to support important projects that address a wide variety of issues in South Palm Beach County, including abused, abandoned and neglected children in the foster care system; after school care for low income and farm worker children; and providing support and training resources for area non-profits through the Junior League's Vegso Community Resource Center. The purpose of the Junior League is exclusively educational and charitable.
