Junior League of Boca Raton Tees Off for Area Organizations:
A new tradition begins in Boca Raton

BOCA RATON, FL – Calling all golfers! The first annual Junior League of Boca Raton Golf Classic is set to tee off Monday, April 27, 2009. This new fundraiser will include an 18-hole, four person scramble held at the Boca Country Club.

A unique addition to event day is the junior Golf Clinic for economically disadvantaged children. Professional golfers are lined up to provide each child with an enriching and educational opportunity to discover a fun, new sport.

The event kicks off with a shotgun start at 1:00 pm and will end with an awards ceremony and dinner. WPTV NewsChannel 5 Anchor/Reporter Paige Kornblue will serve as the evening's Mistress of Ceremonies. Golfers can register as individual participants for $250 or in foursomes for $1000. Tickets for the event include the use of the Club's practice facility, player gift package, entrance into all contests, course snacks and beverages, remembrance photo, and awards dinner reception. Four golfers will have a chance to win $100,000 and one lucky person could win $1,000,000.

The Million Dollar Hole in One Contest is sponsored by Green T Creative Corporate Services. Founded in 2003, Green T brings together the best talent in film and video production or event/PR management personnel to deliver quality projects to clients like Burger King Corporation and Celebrity Cruises. "My company had been described as a 'creative boutique' ...I can deliver on a budget and clients appreciate that, particularly in financial times
