Junior League of Boca Raton Uses Creative Approach To Attract New Members

Boca Raton – On June 23, 2006 The Junior League of Boca Raton, Inc. (JLBR), through an in-kind donation from CBS Outdoor placed a billboard advertisement inviting area women to join the organization. This advertisement is part of a larger recruitment campaign led by JLBR President Kathy Adkins and the 2006-2007 Board of Directors. In order to meet the growing demands for community services and programs, Adkins is making one of the League's top priorities for the 2006-2007 year membership recruitment. This will enable the JLBR to continue to grow and strengthen the on-going impact the League has had on the South Florida community for the past 35 years. Since 1971, the JLBR has been an integral part of our community. This year, JLBR members will contribute more than 35,000 volunteer hours locally and donate more than $300,000 to the South Florida community. Women who are interested in joining are invited to attend a Candidate Education Session that will be held on August 15 at 7 pm at the Vegso Community Resource Center (JLBR office) at 261 NW 13th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33432 for women interested in becoming a member of the JLBR. To RSVP or to receive additional information please contact the JLBR office at 561-620-2553, or visit www.JLBR.org.

The Junior League of Boca Raton (JLBR) is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving our community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. The Junior League of Boca Raton is part of the Association of Junior Leagues International, which is comprised of 294 Junior Leagues across the United States and in four countries.
