Junior League of Boca Raton Benefits from Passport to Paradise

Boca Raton –The Maui Spa & Wellness Center recently hosted the "Passport to Paradise" event in Boca Raton. While the sun set over the Maui Rooftop, guests were treated to chair massages by Maui Spa staff and enjoyed cuisine and entertainment by Aloha Café. FUZE Beverages also providing refreshments to everyone, along with complimentary teas and visors.

The "Passport to Paradise" event was part of the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce's Boca Festival Days 2007, with all proceeds going towards the community projects of the Junior League of Boca Raton. The JLBR would like to thank Gayle Wentworth of Maui Spa, Ingrid Schultz of Aloha Café, and Esther Frances of FUZE Beverages for their support of this event.

JLBR President Kristin Calder said, "More than 50 guests enjoyed a relaxing tropical night at the Passport to Paradise event to benefit the Junior League of Boca Raton. Thank you to Maui Spa, Aloha Cafe, FUZE, the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce, our members and the community for making this event such a success."

The Maui Spa is a luxurious 7,000 square foot destination spa and wellness center located in east Boca Raton. You can enjoy hydrotherapy, body wraps, massage, and a number of other indulgences. Check out all of their service at www.themaui.com.
