During her presidential acceptance speech, Adkins stated “once I was settled in Boca Raton I realized the volunteer component of my life was missing. I had always heard of the good works of the Junior League. I knew that it was an organization of strong, accomplished and motivated women who helped make a difference in people’s lives, and I wanted to learn more. I was hooked right from the start. At the Candidate Education Session, Lisa Mulhall spoke about the wonderful projects of the Junior League of Boca Raton and the contributions these amazing women were making in our community.”

A Candidate Education Session will be held on August 15 at 7 pm at the Vegso Community Resource Center (JLBR office) at 261 NW 13th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33432 for women interested in becoming a member of the JLBR. To RSVP or to receive additional information please contact the JLBR office at 561-620-2553, or visit www.JLBR.org

The Junior League of Boca Raton (JLBR) is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving our community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. Since 1971, the JLBR has been an integral part of our community. This year, JLBR members will contribute more than 35,000 volunteer hours locally and donate more than $300,000 to the South Florida community. The Junior League of Boca Raton is part of the Association of Junior Leagues International, which is comprised of 294 Junior Leagues across the United States and in four countries.
