The Junior League of Boca Raton
Gives
Time and Money to the Twin Palms Center for the Disabled

Boca Raton, FL- The Junior League of Boca Raton (JLBR) recently made a donation to support The Twin Palms Center for the Disabled. Twin Palms provides a unique day program for developmentally challenged adults. The center offers social, academic and daily living skills in a secure learning environment. The donation was made from the JLBR Community Support Fund, which provides funding to deserving community agencies. In addition to the financial support that went toward a computer lab update, the JLBR also provided volunteers to the center.

“The JLBR’s involvement with Twin Palms is a great example of how the JLBR has a direct impact our community. We were able to supply funds plus woman power” said Kathy Adkins, JLBR President.

JLBR volunteers went to Twin Palms as part of a hands-on “Done In A Day” project to help repair the playground. “The Junior League of Boca Raton volunteers who came to lay mulch have enabled our clients to enjoy a refurbished playground that had been damaged in Hurricane Wilma. In addition to helping repair the playground, the JLBR donation has provided new computer software and games that our clients use for learning and entertainment” said Doreen Brittell, Director of Twin Palms.
