Trinkets & Treasures thrift sale set for Feb. 29

The Junior League of Boca Raton will have the second Trinkets & Treasures Community Thrift Sale on Feb. 29 at Old School Square in Delray Beach.

■ Junior League
of Boca Raton

Time is 7 a.m.-1 p.m., and admission is $1. Only cash will be accepted.

Food, including hot dogs, pretzels and lemonade, will be on sale.

Items for sale at the event will include men's, women's and children's clothing; housewares; toys; collectibles; furniture; sporting goods; and electronics. Upscale, designer and new merchandise will be featured in the new "Quality Corner."

"We've been collecting and sorting items since October," event chairwoman Alison Siciliano said. "There is something for everyone here."

A private Preview Party for the thrift sale is planned for 7-10 p.m. Feb. 28 at Old School Square. The evening will feature a silent auction, featuring an autographed Miami Dolphins jersey, a watch, four concert tickets to Willie Nelson at Mizner Amphitheater, and massages and facials.

"This is a real community effort," said Carolyn Arnold, Junior League of Boca Raton president.
