

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF BOCA RATON

Dear Prospective Member:

There are about 290 Active members in the Junior League of Boca Raton (JLBR) and each year we actively recruit new "Provisional" members. All Provisional members are required to complete a Provisional course which acquaints potential members with the workings of the League, its membership requirements, and some of its community service programs. After successfully completing the Provisional course, a woman is invited to become an Active member.

On behalf of the Junior League of Boca Raton, we would like to extend a warm welcome to each of you considering membership in our League and in the Association of Junior Leagues International. This packet of information has been assembled to help you in your decision-making process. Enclosed, you will find:

- 1) Information about the application process
- 2) General information about the Junior League
- 3) Information about the provisional course

Please read over this information carefully.

The Junior League of Boca Raton is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism and to improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. We are excited about the Junior League of Boca Raton and its role in our community. This organization has over a 40-year legacy of commitment to voluntarism and providing high quality training and education for its membership.

We invite you to consider becoming a committed member of this dynamic organization.

Sincerely,

Laurie Daniel

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF BOCA RATON INFORMATION

MISSION

The Junior League of Boca Raton, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

The Junior League of Boca Raton welcomes all women who value our Mission. We are committed to inclusive environments of diverse individuals, organizations and communities.

VISION

The Junior League of Boca Raton will provide resources, knowledge and funding to the community through the training, education and voluntarism of its members. The Junior League of Boca Raton will be proactive in developing collaborative partnerships to address significant issues in South Florida and will improve the overall quality of life through a legacy of trained volunteers.

The Junior League of Boca Raton focuses on three issue in our community: hunger, nonprofit support and child welfare.

What is the Junior League?

A nonprofit, charitable and educational organization of women interested in becoming effective volunteers in the community. Members are educated about community needs through membership meetings and committee work; they are trained in the skills for community leadership through participation in League committees, and community service programs. In these ways, members seek to fulfill their desire for personal growth while serving the community in which they live as trained volunteers committed to a better society.

What is AJLI?

The Association of Junior Leagues International. The Junior League was started in 1901 by 19-year-old Mary Harriman in New York City. She started the league as part of the Settlement Movement which was born to help blend together the different classes of people. Since its founding, The Junior League has evolved into one of the oldest, largest and most effective women's volunteer organizations in the world, encompassing 150,000 women in 291 Leagues in four countries.

When was the Junior League of Boca Raton started and how large is it today?

In 1971, the Junior League of Boca Raton was founded. There are currently 700 active and sustaining members in our Community

How does one become a member of the Junior League?

Each Junior League has its own admissions policy; each has its own set of bylaws. All Leagues admit new members on an individual basis. Young women who have an interest in voluntarism and a commitment to community service can be invited to join a League.

Does the League have dues?

Each League sets its own dues structure based mainly on the degree of maintenance and administrative services required. JLBR dues are $167.00 for Actives and Provisionals and $132 for Sustainers, of which $43 is sent to AJLI. There is an additional $50 (non-refundable) Provisional course fee which covers all necessary materials. Monies raised in the community are returned to the community for projects which fill community needs. The League may not raise money for other groups. Spring class Provisional dues are pro-rated and will be $105 plus the $50 Provisional course fee.

Can one transfer membership from one League to another?

Members of Junior Leagues may transfer from one League to another with all the privileges of their class of membership; i.e., Provisional members transfer as Provisionals, Active members as Actives, and Sustaining members as Sustainers.

How long does a member stay in the Junior League?

A Junior League member may continue her active membership indefinitely or until she is eligible to become a Sustainer. At present in the Junior League of Boca Raton, after a member reaches the age of 40 and has served 5 years of active membership or has served 10 years (excluding her provisional year) if under the age of 40, she may become a Sustainer. This means she continues to apply her League education and training to old and new areas of community need, but without the obligations which the League requires of its Active members.
