Junior League of Boca Raton Announces the Fashion Designer for the 31st Annual Woman Volunteer of the Year Luncheon

BOCA RATON, FL, September 14, 2018 – The Junior League of Boca Raton (JLBR) has announced the fashion designer for its Woman Volunteer of the Year Luncheon. Saks Fifth Avenue Boca Raton will again partner with the Junior League as the exclusive Fashion Sponsor for the 31st Annual Woman Volunteer of the Year Luncheon. This year, Saks will present a Fall Trends runway show headlined by a curated assortment of looks from the contemporary line, Tanya Taylor.

Heather Shaw, VP and General Manager of Saks Fifth Avenue Boca Raton, is elated to showcase this line. “Saks is all about exposing clients to the coolest emerging brands and designers in the industry while maintaining a fresh assortment that appeals to the fashion-enthused customer,” said Shaw. Nominees for the award will be announced at a kickoff event hosted by Saks Fifth Avenue Boca Raton, on Thursday, September 27th.

The JLBR will celebrate the 31st anniversary of its Woman Volunteer of the Year Luncheon on Friday, November 16th at the Boca Raton Resort & Club. The annual luncheon celebrates local women in the community and recognizes nominees from nonprofit organizations throughout Palm Beach County for their dedication and expertise as volunteers. “We are thrilled to honor 50 incredible women who are making a difference not only for their nonprofit organization, but the community at large,” said Nikki Steltzer, Woman Volunteer of the Year chair. “It is quite remarkable the caliber of women that are nominated each year and as we enter the 31st year of the award, these women continue to raise the bar for future nominees.”

The Junior League of Boca Raton's mission focuses on training volunteers, developing the potential of women and improving the community through effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Each of the Woman Volunteer of the Year nominees embodies the League's mission as women building better communities.
